OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR (TRAINING)-cum-
DEPUTY APPRENTICESHIP ADVISER

Puducherry, dated

25 JAN 2017

CIRCULAR

The Directorate General of Apprenticeship Training, Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship implementing the Apprentices Act, 1961 has launched a new scheme "National Apprenticeship Promotion Scheme"(NAPS). The scheme aims to extend the benefits of re-imburement of stipend to an extent of 25% or Rs. 1,500/month per apprentice whichever is lower. A web portal <http://www.apprenticeship.gov.in/> is exclusively designed for this functionaries and registration of establishment is mandatory for availing the said benefits.

The following activities are also to be executed compulsorily through the web portal for effective adoption of the scheme.

1. Direct selection of apprentices without any domicile restrictions by an establishment through the web portal.
2. Offering of Apprenticeship training to the registered candidate.
3. Auto generation of contract of apprenticeship.
4. Apply for re-imburement of stipend through the web portal.
5. Creation of All India Trade Test (AITT) application for new and failed candidates.
6. Printing of hall ticket, mark sheet and National Apprenticeship Certificate (NAC).
